Dear Bill:

It is so long since I last heard from you, that I must send you a few lines and ask how you have been!

Time is just flying, - Annie and myself shall be leaving for Sundsvik on June 8th, and that date is nearing rather rapidly, especially as there is always plenty to do. I have even taken to flying, in a modest way, - next week I shall be going to Madrid for a couple of days, and I just could not spare the time for a railway passage.

I am of course rather interested to hear how your plans for the Swedish trip are getting along! Please let us know as soon as possible, so that we can reserve rooms for you and Elizebeth in good time. Summer is a rather bad time for tourists in Sweden, as there are not hotelrooms enough.

We have at last spring here. Last week we went to Locarno, south of St.Gotthard, and it was just gorgeous there, while there was heavy snowing here, - but now the weather has changed at last.

We do trust that you both are in good health, and we send you our affectionate regards.

Sincerely
