

Mr. F. H. Colloban
 President
 Rand Corporation
 1700 Main Street
 Santa Monica, California

Dear Mr. Colloban:

This summer a special study group, under the auspices of the National Security Agency Scientific Advisory Board, worked on a subject of extreme importance to this Agency and to the United States.

The report which this group prepared has only recently been submitted to me in its final form.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to the Rand Corporation on behalf of the National Security Agency for the services of Dr. Richard C. Raymond, one of your members, and to Dr. Raymond personally for his time, efforts and valuable contributions to the success of this project.

Sincerely,

RALPH J. CANINE
 Lieutenant General, US Army
 Director
