Andreas Figl
Rudolf Bieblstr. 17
Salzburg, Austria

My dear Colonel Figl:

Receipt of your letter of 12 October 1954 is acknowledged. I regret that it should have been necessary for you to remind me of my secretary's promise to write you.

However, I had been expecting to hear from my friend and at last word has come that he is no longer in the vicinity or in a position to undertake an examination of your manuscript on my behalf. As a consequence and with regret I must inform you that I cannot be of assistance to you in the matter which you sought my aid or advice.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM F. FRIEDMAN
