My dear M. de Chauny:

Your very prompt action in response to my letter of 6 September 1954 makes me your grateful debtor.

Besides wishing to thank you I write you now to ask you to tell me how much I owe you for the book you purchased for me so that I can square our financial account on this score, to which I shall add the cost of postage.

The book proved to be quite interesting, though bizarre, and we shall be able to make good use of it in our own forthcoming book on Shakespeare.

With my best thanks and cordial greetings, I am,

Sincerely,

WILLIAM F. FRIEDMAN
