Dear Mr. Mansbridge:

Upon my return home from my recent trip to Europe, I join with Mrs. Friedman in thanking you for the congratulations extended in your letter of 21 March 1955 upon our being awarded the Folger $1,000 prize for our manuscript.

The public announcement of the award will probably be made at the end of this week.

Just as soon as I get caught up on my office affairs and other mundane matters, such as preparing and filing both Federal and District of Columbia income tax returns, I hope to communicate further with you in regard to the interest which the Cambridge University Press may have in the publication of our manuscript.

With cordial greetings, I am,

Sincerely,

WILLIAM F. FRIEDMAN
