

THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS
WASHINGTON

KM

OFFICE OF THE LIBRARIAN

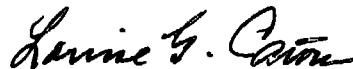

July 24, 1942

Dear Mr. Friedman:

In response to your recent request, I send herewith, by direction of the Librarian, a renewed card permitting you to draw from the Library books on hieroglyphics and cryptology, so far as capable of issue, until June 30, 1943.

Very truly yours,

Enclosure

Secretary of the Library

Mr. William F. Friedman
3932 Military Road
Washington, D. C.

SPSIS-3

23 July 1943

Librarian
Library of Congress
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

There is enclosed herewith my expired card permitting me to draw books from the Library on hieroglyphics and cryptology. I would appreciate it if this could be renewed for another period of six months.

Very truly yours,

William F. Friedman
Director of Communications
Research

Lib.
of Congress