Mr. William F. Friedman
National Security Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Friedman:

Kindly accept our gratitude for another splendid presentation on "Communications Intelligence." Your appearance is always one of the highlights of our Communications-Electronics Staff Officer Course.

7 | The curriculum for the new general course, of which we spoke briefly, is in the process of formulation. We anticipate that provisions will be made for C&E officers to benefit from your original and expert presentation.

Thank you again for taking the time from your busy schedule to assist the Air Command and Staff School in the development of Air Force C&E officers.

Sincerely,

George S. Walborn

THE COMMUNICATIONS-ELECTRONICS DIVISION hereby confers upon

William F. Friedman

the title of HONORARY MEMBER OF THE FACULTY of the COMMUNICATIONS-ELECTRONICS STAFF OFFICER COURSE

Air Command & Staff School.. Air University

Together with all the rights, privileges and honors pertaining thereto in consideration of the satisfactory completion of the required number of lectures represented by the standard number of invisible training aids before hushed communicators in hallowed, helix-helixed halls...

Notwithstanding the tribulations of official entertainment, ten-minute break coffee, and erect propped in flight lunches to propagate ulcers, anastomatically and gastrojejunally; the guiding hand of J.C.A. to aid reluctant aircraft into fields with ramps ideally exposed to the gentle Alabama elements; and the hazardous embrace of crab-like microphones with tail-like attachments, ...; and

The Degree of
"Videntes Viri Ignis"
for omnifarious, faux d'artifice that never die, but haunt and continue to burn...

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, the great Malletus Visualaidus seal of the division has been properly, hereunto appended and authentically thereof attested by chirography of the rebel pen of constituted and endowed authorities herein under designated:

Given at Maxwell AFB on the ..9th.. day of May.. in the year of our Lord, Nineteen hundred and 52
