Dear Bob:

Thank you for returning the four reports we checked out to you last fall. I am returning herewith your receipt for the documents.

I am very sorry you are leaving this area and shall miss you. But I have real hopes that we will get together again in the not too distant future, when the new SCAG is established.

With cordial regards to all the Robertsons, I am,

Sincerely,

Dear Bill:

I am returning herewith the four reports which you lent me last fall. These have been very illuminating indeed and I only regret that lack of time has kept me from going further into the subject.

As you know, I am leaving here the first of the month, but hope that I will still have occasion to see you here or in California.

Very sincerely yours,

Bob
