1. REPORT OF SUBCOMMITTEE ON PROMOTION OF CECIL C. CORRY, AS-84

The following report was submitted and approved:

The subcommittee, appointed at the last regular meeting of the Civilian Employment Board, met on 9 and 20 October 1947. During the meetings, the following were considered for the position of Chief, Protective Branch (P-5, Traffic Analyst):

Cecil C. Corry	AS-84
Herbert L. Conley	AS-93
Theodore L. Squier, Jr.	AS-93B
George Koerner	AS-96
Ralph J. McCertney	AS-94
Lt. Madison Mitchell	AS-93

Upon review it was the opinion of the subcommittee that the following persons were the best qualified:

Cecil C. Corry	AS-84
Herbert L. Conley	AS-93

After further study it was considered that Mr. Conley was the most qualified for the position in question.

The committee recommended to the Chief, Army Security Agency that Mr. Conley was the most qualified and that he be transferred and promoted to the P-5 position upon his return from overseas, which will be about July or August 1948. The "promotion request" for Mr. Corry was returned to Security Division without action.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~2. PROMOTIONS

Norman Boardman, AS-94
Reclassification of Position
Intelligence Analyst (P-3) to Intelligence Analyst (P-4)

Mr. Sullivan stated that this is a case of reclassification of the position to which Mr. Boardman was assigned and that the grade had been approved by the Chief, Army Security Agency. Mr. Sullivan asked if there were any other candidates. There being none, it was recommended that Mr. Norman Boardman be promoted from P-3 to P-4.

3. PERIODIC MEETINGS - Division and Personnel & Training Branch

Mr. Sullivan stated that plans are being drafted to make closer relations and understanding between the personnel of Personnel and Training Branch and the operating personnel. The plans call for supervisors of Personnel and Training Branch to meet with representatives of the operational divisions and discuss subjects which would be of common interest and value. It was decided that a schedule of orientation tours would be advisable at this time which would also provide for a tour of Personnel and Training Branch by operating personnel.

4. There being no additional subjects for discussion the Board adjourned at 1320 hours.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN
Chairman, Civilian Employment Board
