FROM : AFSA 26

SUBJECT:

DATE: 1 Apr. 52

In regard to AFSA 23 objections of divorcing plain-text because of its help in crypt work, a duplicate copy of any message sent to them for that purpose would solve their problem.

SUBJECT: Plain-text Processing

1. Among the subjects on which you asked that I write a paper was that of similarities and differences between [Redacted] and AFSA organizations, methods and arrangements for processing plain-text traffic for the production of COMINT. Attached hereto, as an enclosure, is the paper I have prepared on the subject, which I hope will be adequate for your purposes.

[Large Redacted Area]

[Redacted] This may not be true in all areas of the problem; only a careful review of the situation could serve to indicate what could now be eliminated or reduced in scale.

3. As before, I must state that the enclosure represents my personal views and is not to be regarded as an official AFSA document.
